

HOME: REMEMBERING THE WINDRUSH GENERATION EXHIBITION

The exhibition and events are free. Booking required.
For more information and to book visit
www.newhamwindrushday.org

WE ARE NEWHAM.

HOME: REMEMBERING THE WINDRUSH GENERATION EXHIBITION AND EVENTS

HOME: Remembering the Windrush Generation Exhibition

1-12 August, various times available

Curated by author and speaker Tony Fairweather, this exhibition gives an insight into the nostalgic recreation of an iconic Caribbean front room of the Windrush era. The collection is for all ages.

HOME will be accompanied art exhibition, A Proud Inheritance by Marilyn Fontaine, which explores the stories and culture of local people from the Windrush era, and From Oppression to Expression by Safaket London, a display of traditional Caribbean clothing which highlights its relevance to identity for members of the UK Caribbean diaspora today.

HOME: Memories of the Windrush Generation Exhibition Launch

1 August 6-8pm

This event will launch the exhibition, HOME: Remembering the Windrush Generation and include insight from the artists involved.

Music of the Windrush Era

3 August 6-8pm

Author Tony Fairweather and musician Ciyò Brown will discuss the heritage of music from the Windrush era and its impact on the UK music scene.

Windrush Children and Families Event

5 August 10am-12pm

The HOME Exhibition will be specifically open for children and family members of all ages to meet Tony Fairweather and enjoy arts and music activities.

A Proud Inheritance Collage Workshop

5 August 2.30-5pm

Local artist Marilyn Fontaine will lead this art workshop in which you will learn the basics of collage work and explore the themes of Marilyn's exhibition, as well as your own family memories and heritage.

A Proud Inheritance – Keeping Stories Alive

9 August 6-8pm

Marilyn Fontaine will be joined by Neandra Etienne and Beresford Tulloh to discuss the importance of keeping alive the stories and practices from our heritage, especially within multicultural communities.

Sakafet London Caribbean Clothing Workshop

12 August 10.30am-12pm

Participants will learn about traditional Caribbean wear and the fabrics, in particular the Madras fabric. You will have the opportunity to create your own headwear.

The exhibition and all events take place at Old Town Hall Stratford, 29 The Broadway, London, E15 4BQ.

To book for the exhibition and individual events please visit www.newhamwindrushday.org